ALLIES MAKE DESIGNATION OF PEACE TERMS

Associated Press Has Learned That The Entente Reply to President Wilson's Note is Specific and Direct as to Peace Term Demands.

LIBERATION OF SLAVS, ITALIANS, ROUMANIANS AND CZECH SLAVS DEMANDED.

London, January 11.—(Associated Press)—It has been learned by the Associated Press that the Entente reply to President Wilson makes specific designation of its terms of peace, which includes the restoration of Belgium, Serbia, and Montenegro and complete reparation for the damage they sustained; and the evacuation of the invaded territories of France, Russia and Roumania with such reparation as is considered just.

The terms also require the liberation of Italians, Slavs, Roumanians, and Czech Slavs from foreign domination.

SHARP RECEIVES NOTE OF ALLIES FROM M. BRIAND

Full Text Will Be Given to Public Monday Morning.

Allies Desire the Full Text to Be in the President's Hands First.

(Associated Press Cable.)

Paris, January 11.—Premier Briand today received Ambassador Sharp and handed him, in the name of all the Allied Governments, the answer to President Wilson's note of December 18.

The reply will be published on Friday morning, the Allies desiring to be sure that the President has the text in hand before publication in the press.

Premier Briand at the same time gave Ambassador Sharp a note from the Belgian Government.

This note, while declaring entire adhesion to the general answer of the Allies, says that the Belgian Government desires to show its feeling of gratitude to the American Government for the generous services rendered the unfortunate Belgian population.

STRONG LANGUAGE BY LLOYD GEORGE

London, January 11.—Premier Lloyd George, speaking in the Guild hall this afternoon, said Emperor Wilhelm had told his people that the Entente Allies had rejected his peace offer.

"The Emperor did so, he said, to drag those whom he could no longer drag on."

"We had rejected no peace terms," the Premier said, and added: "We were not offered terms, but a trap baited with fine words."

"It would suit Germany now to have peace on her own terms. We all want peace, but it must be a real one."

BEING TRANSLATED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, January 11.—The Entente reply to President Wilson's peace note began arriving this morning at the State Department.

As fast as it was decoded, it was laid before President Wilson and Secretary Lansing.

PROMPT ACTION BY GOV. STANLEY

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Murray, Ky., January 11.—Prompt action by Governor A. O. Stanley in chartering a special train and rushing to Murray from Frankfort when he was informed of threats of mob violence which had been made against Judge Charles Bush and Commonwealth Attorney Smith of the Calloway county Circuit Court probably averted an attack on those officials today.

The crowd, which had been clamoring for the life of a negro charged with murder, listened to the Governor's pleas to let the law take its course and apparently was pacified with announcements that a definite date had been fixed for his trial.

Later, the Governor, Judge Bush, and Attorney Smith left on a special train, satisfied there would be no further demonstration.

Both the judge and the commonwealth attorney spent the night at a hotel guarded by a heavy force of deputy sheriffs, while outside during the greater part of the time an angry crowd threatened either to lynch them or to dynamite the hotel.

STEEL PRESIDENT DEAD

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Pittsburg, January 11.—Charles Cyrus Ramsey, aged 54, president of the Crucible Steel Company of America, died in a hospital here early today after an illness of six weeks from pneumonia.

WANT FINANCES FOR IMPROVEMENT

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, January 11.—The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company filed application with the State Public Utilities Commission today for authority to issue $2,000,000 worth of bonds for improvement, extensions and betterments of its property.

"TANK" WRECKED ON TRENCH SHOWN IN FIRST PICTURE TO REACH AMERICA

REACHED A GERMAN TRENCH BUT BROKE DOWN (NOTE DAMAGED BELT).

This picture, made from one which reached America a few days ago, shows a British "tank" astride a German trench. The monster fought well, but emerged from the battle with a damaged caterpillar belt, which forced it to remain where it was—in the act of crossing one of the enemy's trenches. Field Marshal Haig's recent report on the battle of the Somme contains frequent mention of the work of the "tanks." One example follows:

"Gueudecourt was carried after protecting trenches to the west had been captured, in an interesting fashion. In the early morning a 'tank' started down a portion of a trench held by the enemy, from the northwest, firing its machine guns and followed by bombers. The enemy could not escape, as we held the trench at the southern end. At the same time an airplane flew down the length of the trench, also firing its machine gun at the enemy. The enemy finally waved white handkerchiefs in token of surrender, and when this was reported by the airplane the infantry accepted the surrender of the garrison. Besides a great number of the enemy killed, we made prisoners eight officers and 362 men. Our total casualties were five."

SUICIDE ATTEMPT BY THAW

Slayer of Stanford White Now Sought for Assault Charge Found in a Philadelphia Apartment House With Wrists and Throat Cut.

CONDITION IS SERIOUS

Physicians Give Out No Direct Information.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, JANUARY 11.—HARRY K. THAW, WANTED BY THE NEW YORK AUTHORITIES ON CHARGES OF KIDNAPING AND ASSAULTING A KANSAS CITY BOY WAS FOUND IN AN APARTMENT HOUSE AT FIFTY-THIRD AND WALNUT STREETS, WEST PHILADELPHIA, BY THE POLICE TODAY, WITH HIS WRISTS AND THROAT CUT.

He was taken to St. Mary's hospital in the northeastern section of the city and his condition is said to be serious. In the absence of direct information from physicians attending him, there were conflicting reports as to how serious his condition is.

Dr. John Wanamaker, III, a police surgeon, said cursory examination of Thaw's wounds indicated he had a fair chance to recover.

His wrists were hacked several times and there were two gashes in his throat.

There are two versions of the affair. One is that Thaw was located in the house and that when he learned it was surrounded he attempted suicide.

The other version is that Thaw attempted suicide this morning; that persons in the house communicated with the Thaw family in Pittsburg, that the family telephoned back to Dr. Elwood Kirby, who has attended members of the Thaw family, and that Dr. Kirby, in turn, notified the police.

THE FRANKLIN COUNTY CONSERVANCY BOARD DOWN TO BUSINESS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, January 11.—The Franklin County Conservancy Commissioners went into executive session at 8 o'clock this morning to consider their next step with the Alvord Burdick plan knocked out and a petition for the dissolution of the flood district foiled in court. It was their first meeting in two weeks.

It is probable that the commissioners will adopt an abbreviated flood protection plan with one dam at Dublin.

This proposed plan would cost about half of the estimated $11,000,000 of the original plan.

UP AGAIN

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Wagon, January 11.—Transmission in the mails of liquor advertisements in circulars, newspapers, or other wise into states which prohibit such advertising or solicitation is barred by a bill by Senator Bankhead, of Alabama, passed today by the Senate. It now goes to the House.

BONAR LAW WANTS LOAN

New Chancellor of Exchequer Has Financial Plan.

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, January 11.—(Bulletin)—Andrew Bonar Law, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced at the Guild Hall meeting today that the basis for the new British war loan was an issue at five per cent and the price ninety-five.

The period of the loan, he stated, was thirty years, with an option for redemption in twelve years.

The Chancellor said five per cent would be paid on application and the balance in equal proportions. The last payment would be on May 30.

BRIGHTER HUE IN COKE REGION

B. & O. Railroad Declares Embargo on Western Shipments.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Connellsville, Pa., January 11.—Shipping conditions in the coke region were apparently well on the way to satisfactory adjustment when announcement was made here late Wednesday that the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad had declared an embargo against western shipments.

It is yet too early to gauge the extent of the inconvenience the order will cause, but coke operators united in saying that shipments would be seriously curtailed if it is to continue over any considerable period.

TWO TORPEDOED

(Associated Press Cable.)
London, January 11.—The British Admiralty ship Cornwallis has been sunk by a submarine. The seaplane carrier Benmychae has also been sunk.

GOVERNOR DECLINES SPEAKING INVITATIONS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, January 11.—Governor Cox announced today that he would not accept any further speaking engagements at this time, on account of the situation created by the decision of the Supreme Court in holding unconstitutional the present tax law in Ohio.

NOTHING DOING ADVERSE REPORT LEAK COMMITTEE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, January 11.—The Democratic majority of the Rules Committee today voted the report of the Wood "leak" resolution adversely.

END OF INQUIRY

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, January 11.—The action of the committee operates to end the inquiry.

Republicans were willing to proceed with any kind of an inquiry that might be devised, but were solidly opposed by the Democratic members, who concluded that there was no ground in Lawson's charges upon which to base an investigation.

FORMER CABINET MEMBER IS DEAD

Wayne MacVeagh, Former Attorney General, Answers Summons.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, January 11.—Wayne MacVeagh, Attorney General in the cabinet of President Garfield, and brother of Franklin MacVeagh, former Secretary of the Treasury, died here early today.

Mr. MacVeagh died at his winter home here after a general decline of several months. He leaves a widow and three children, one of whom was by his first wife.

FIVE PERISHED IN THE ANGRY FLAMES

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Montreal, January 11.—Four children and a maid of the family of Dr. J. H. LeBlanc, a dentist, were burned to death early today in a fire which destroyed their apartment above a moving picture theater.

The parents were visiting friends and had left the children in care of the maid.

BRITISH PUSH TO PALESTINE

From the Suez Canal Region Northeastward on the Sinai Peninsula Advance Has Been Made.

Turkish Relief Force Is Defeated.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

BRITISH TROOPS PUSHING NORTHEASTWARD FROM THE SUZ CANAL REGION ON THE SINAI PENINSULA HAVE CARRIED THEIR ADVANCE TO THE BORDER OF PALESTINE.

They have captured there the defensive entrenchment of Rafa, 30 miles northeast of El Arish on the Mediterranean, taken by the British last month, and about 70 miles southwest of Jerusalem.

The attack was carried out by Australian troops and a camel corps, and was followed by the defeat of a Turkish relief force four miles east of the Rafa position.

In the operation 1,500 unwounded prisoners and four mountain guns were taken, according to the British official report.

Greece has followed up her formal acceptance of the Entente ultimatum by beginning the delivery to the Entente naval authorities of six batteries of mountain guns.

This is in accordance with the agreement reached after the disturbances in Athens last month in connection with the Entente demands, among other things, for the delivery of Greek army artillery.

The campaign of Field Marshal von Mackensen in northern Roumania continues to be pressed with force, and nearly all along the line from the Dniebu to Fokshani the Allies have been pushed back to the Sereth river.

North of Fokshani the Russians have been making a stand on the River Putna, the main Sereth position, and are fighting to retain the railroad junction at Marest, in Moldavia.

REPORTS DETAIL VILLA AMBITIONS WITH NEW ARMY

Intends to Operate With Intention of Occupying Juarez.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

El Paso, Texas, January 11.—Government agents received a report today, which was accepted as authentic that Francisco Villa has sent 3,000 of his troops north from Parral to operate between Chihuahua City and Juarez with the intention of occupying the state capital and Juarez while General Murguia is in southwestern Chihuahua.

Foreign refugees arriving at the border today confirm the report.

CHAIRMAN ED FITE TAKES THE BIG CAKE

Joke "Pulled" on Temporary Chairman of D. T. Club Brings Roars of Laughter—Nearly 90 Men Attend Luncheon—Resolutions Adopted.

The largest number of business men ever attending the noonday luncheon of the Dutch Treat Club assembled Thursday noon for the "roast pig" and all of the trimmings, and not one was disappointed in the "feed" or the good fellowship which followed.

Nearly 90 men were in attendance and it was with difficulty that all were accommodated. Dr. Bromely returned thanks, after which all enjoyed the splendid repast.

Mr. Ed Fite presided, and as the meal drew to a close Attorney E. L. Bush arose and County Clerk-elect, H. C. Ireland, stepped into the room bearing a huge tray upon which appeared a mammoth white cake with candles burning.

In a few words Mr. Bush explained that it was Chairman Fite's 32 birthday anniversary and as a mark of recognition of his valuable services the Dutch Treat Club had decided to present him with a cake in appreciation of his work.

Chairman Fite, with much feeling thanked the members of the club, and by this time a carving knife was placed in his hand and waiters assembled with trays to distribute the cake to the assembled members.

Seizing the knife Mr. Fite attempted to plunge it into the "cake" but it stuck fast. After the third attempt to carve the huge cake Mr. Fite gave up in despair and the crowd howled with delight, for the "cake" was a full grown cheese box carefully coated with icing.

After luncheon considerable time was devoted to response to invitations for speeches from visitors, and many short, witty remarks were made. The visitors, nearly all of whom spoke, were Dr. Henry W. Bromley, Prof. Myers, Dallas Blatt, Judge Joseph Hidy, H. H. Hone of Chillicothe; Carl Baer Hope, Ark.; Lot H. Brown, Columbus; Rev. G. L. Hart; A. W. Black, Cleveland; Chas. McCoy, Cincinnati; W. L. Clemans, Cedarville; N. T. Spiker, Cincinnati; C. C. French, Jeffersonville; H. L. Spray, Dr. C. C. Hazard, Dr. C. A. Teeters, C. F. Ballard, W. H. Clippett, Clarence Craig, V. J. Hoppes, E. A. McCoy, W. M. Kane, Attorney R. E. Vanderveer, Judge F. M. Allen.

A number of the out of town visitors stated that in all of their experience they never met a more congenial bunch than those assembled, and praised the organization as being an ideal one.

Upon motion by Hon. C. A. Reid, a vote of thanks was extended to Chas. Allen, who had given the pig to the club, and then Mr. Allen responded with a witty speech. This moved George Hitchcock to poetry, and all joined in the laugh.

Mr. Henry Brownell, chairman of the resolutions committee submitted resolutions on the death of the former chairman of the club, Mr. Wm. Worthington, and they were adopted by unanimous vote. A copy of the resolutions, leather bound, were presented to Mrs. Worthington.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

"Yielding to the will of our Divine Father in removing from this organization our much beloved President, and deeming it fitting to express in some formal way our appreciation of his former relation and service to this club.

"Therefore, Be It Resolved, by The Dutch Treat Club of Washington C. H., Ohio,

"That the members of this club in the death of William Worthington feel the loss of a personal friend, and desire the privilege of expressing the deepest grief that can come to friends,

"That in the shadow of this grief we pledge ourselves to maintain the spirit of unfettered freedom in the thought and action of this club so firmly established by Mr. Worthington.

W. M. CAMPBELL,
C. A. REID
HENRY BROWNELL Committee."

HENS ON STRIKE RECORD PRICE OF EGGS IS IN SIGHT

With the hens on a strike and the prospects of some cold weather, a record breaking price for eggs may be established within the next few days or weeks.

"At the present time, with few eggs obtainable and the purchase price at 45 cents per dozen, a cold snap is all that is necessary to send the price soaring to new heights," said Mr. Henry Brownell in speaking of the situation Thursday morning.

"It is simply impossible to get the eggs because they are not being produced, and if the weather continues very cold for a short time the supply will be far less than it has been," he explained.

Mr. Brownell also stated that it would be impossible to obtain one thousand dozen eggs in Fayette county at the present time at any price.

In the larger centers where eggs in cold storage have relieved the shortage the reserve supply is becoming exhausted, so there is every reason why the farmer (or invariably the farmer's wife) should give careful attention to Mrs. Hen for sometime to come.

C. & O. COAL IS TO PASS OVER THE C. H. & D.

Track Changes Ordered So Large Volume of Coal Can Be Transferred to C. H. & D. at Chillicothe and Pass Through This City on Way to Lakes—Changes Here.

Plans which for many months have been in the course of development are now being shaped so that within the next three or four months a large volume of C. & O. coal will be passing over the local division of the C. H. & D. rail road on its way to Toledo and the lakes.

And with the changes planned comes unofficial announcement that a round house will be located in this city in order to facilitate traffic, other changes may be made at this point.

Regarding the changes contemplated the Chillicothe News says:

Increased yard facilities will be made at Renick's station, south of Chillicothe in order to accommodate C. & O. northern traffic and relieve congested traffic condition at the Cincinnati terminals.

The announcement followed a conference of officials of the B. & O., C. H. & D. and N. & W. railroads at Renick's on Tuesday. For some time past C. & O. northern freight has been handled by the N. & W. from Kenova and by the C. H. & D. out of Cincinnati to Toledo.

As a result of this plan, both the local division of the N. & W. and the Toledo division of the C. H. & D., especially between Cincinnati and Dayton have been crowded between by the C. & O. north-bound freight.

To relieve these congested conditions and shorten the route to the lakes it has been decided to route C. & O. northern traffic to Glen Jean, its present northern terminus, then to Renick's, where it can be transferred over the local division of the C. H. & D. to Toledo.

The plan will mean the building of four additional track in the C. H. & D. yards at Renick's. These will be two transfer tracks, a switch track and a long additional siding, the latter to be built west of the N. & W. tower at Renick's. Work will start as soon as the weather permits. As the C. & O. is expected to finish its work in June or July, it is expected that the new yards will be in operation by August.

Present at the conference were E. N. Beglen, Cincinnati, chief engineer for the B. & O. system, J. B. Carothers, Cincinnati, assistant to B. & O. General Manager C. W. Galloway, J. T. Carey, Portsmouth, superintendent of the N. & W., B. W. Herman, Columbus, assistant general freight agent of the N. & W., G. F. Turley, Portsmouth, N. & W. trainmaster and other officials.

BABY RESTS AMID FLOWERS

A sad little service was conducted by Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, over all that was mortal of the beautiful little girl who had gladdened the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Orr for two and a half short years.

It was held at the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Os Kennedy, which was filled with sympathizing friends. Everyone who had known the little one loved her and there were few dry eyes in the room. A profusion of lovely flowers lay around the tiny casket, their fragrance, symbolical of the baby life, bearing rich perfume in its memory.

The minister made tender remarks, offering all that was possible of comfort and read the hymn, "Abide With Me."

The burial was made in the Washington cemetery, the little one borne to her last resting place by close relatives, Messrs. Oscar Orr, Jack Orr, Logan Buzick and John Boyer.

MEMOIR.
On July 10, 1914 Elizabeth came to brighten and bless the home of Wilbur and Maude Orr, and on the 7th day of January, 1917, the gates of Heaven were opened and Elizabeth went in.

She was a child of remarkably bright mind and sunny disposition, a favorite with all. She will be missed by all who knew her and especially by her father, mother, sister and brothers.

To Banish the Trading Stamp

Many retail merchants throughout the United States are actively engaged in a crusade which has for its purpose, abolishing all trading stamps, coupons and premium award features in connection with the sale of merchandise.

The men back of the crusade point out very clearly that the trading stamps and premium award plans simply add to the cost which the consumer must pay. The tremendous sums spent by mercantile firms in premiums cannot fail to add just that much to the cost and to that extent increase the cost of living.

Many famous and successful American merchants, among them John Wanamaker, insist that goods of all kinds should be sold on their merits and at the lowest price consistent with sound business rules and that the trading stamps and premiums not only add tremendously to the cost but force the public to purchase an inferior quality of goods.

Prohibitory legislation promises to grow out of the agitation in the very near future.

The antagonistic movement is growing rapidly. The remarkable thing about it all is, not that these keen business men have discovered the real effect of a practice which should have been stopped long ago, but that they have remained silent for so long a time and that it has taken so long for the people generally to see through so patent a proposition.

The Tax Laws Again

It, seems strange that, within twenty-four hours, after Governor Cox's inauguration the supreme court announced its decision declaring the Parrett-Whittemore tax law unconstitutional and void.

The decision plunges the state again into confusion regarding the method of listing property for taxation.

While the Warnes law is revived by the passing of the Parrett-Whittemore law yet there are certain broad principles announced by the supreme Court in its decision which make certain the destruction of the Warnes law as soon as its validity is questioned in a judicial proceeding.

All of which means that the Ohio legislature must take up at once and wrestle with the problem of framing a tax law which will be effective in gathering the personal property in for taxation, in line with the constitutional limitations and at the same time not bring down upon the heads of the chief executive and the members of the legislature such a violent storm of disapproval as followed the enactment, four years ago, of the Warnes law.

That the new executive and the new legislature appreciate the enormity of the task is certain.

One thing which the court decision settles for all time and that is that no more will we have appointive assessors unless the people amend the constitution.

That seems unlikely and with that rule established there is likely to be a much better reception for the new tax law.

Economy in Public Affairs

Economy in the administration of public affairs should be one of the chief aims of all officials. There is no one who will dispute that assertion.

There is, however, a yawning gulf which stretches between that very much to be desired station—economy in public affairs—and a policy of niggardliness into which all efficiency will fall if the last mentioned policy becomes the aim of the administrators of public affairs.

Extravagance is absolutely destructive of efficiency in public or private business but no more so that miserliness.

The chief aim should be always the discharge of the official duties. When public servants are devoting their time and talents to the work required of them—interested and enthusiastic in their tasks—they lose sight of the cost end and their is not much danger of extravagance or miserliness.

When extravagant expenditures are permitted and encouraged the service becomes secondary. When the main drive is to curtail expenses for political effect that becomes the chief aim.

There is reason and moderation in all things but no where is it more imperative that reason and moderation be practiced than in the public service.

Poetry For Today

RICH MAN—POOR MAN.
Once I could eat 'most anything,
Of hoof or paw or fin or wing,
Or hush or plant of hill or vale,
Or raw or done or fresh or stale,
Or cold or hot-and-simmering.

I gave my appetite full swing;
I stuffed me like an ancient King;
Nor thought me ever to bewail
Once I could eat!

Now dinner bells go ting-a-ling;
The feasters gay are gathering,
While I in solitude assail
My gruel thin and watered ale!
O gluttony, this is thy sting—
Once I could eat!

Once I could eat 'most anywhere
Long, long ago—it is not clear
How long—but I remember when
Kitchens were kept to enter in,
And all the world was of good cheer!

Yet I must starve another year;
Just why I should, does not appear;
I only know, as other men,
Once I could eat!

First, 'twas the drouth made prices dear;
Then, 'twas the tariff—now, I hear,
'Tis Europe's war that keeps me thin!
Ah, next 'twill be adjudged a sin,
A crime, a felony, I fear!
Once I could eat!

"LITTLE LOST SISTER" LYCEUM THEATER SAT.

"Little Lost Sister" is a play in four acts written by Miss Virginia Brooks, and dramatized by Edward E. Rose and will be presented at the Lyceum Theater (formerly the Empire) Saturday night January 13.

"Little Lost Sister" is not a grim, offensive portrayal of vice, but a sincere story, pointing the evils of the underworld and the ways to be avoided, showing seemingly innocent pitfalls, which too often prove so dangerous. In this way it is doing a world of good.

Miss Brooks the author, says: "Mothers, especially those who are pretty busy with their household duties, and fathers who are at work from sun up till sun down, do not overlook the one vital duty to your children, especially the daughter. Make them companions, instead of having them hold you in fear. It is all right to plan how to make dollars and keep the household together, yes—but first of all, plan to get the confidence of your girls, and help plan to make home happy to them."

As one dramatic critic in Chicago said: "Every person in the country can gain a valuable truth by seeing the play, 'Little Lost Sister,' one which will do a great good." Adv.

DOGS HELP TO BOOST HIGH COST OF LIVING

By Associated Press Dispatch, London, January 11.—Thousands of dogs are helping to keep up the high cost of eating in this country by figuratively snatching from the mouths of humans, pound steaks, mutton chops and other expensive things. This was brought out in parliament the other day when it became known that steps were being taken to "re-duce" the 2,000,000 dogs that inhabit the British Isles. The result was a protest from alarmed doglovers and a chorus of approval by doghaters. Newspapers have been flooded with letters from both camps.

What really makes patriotic people boil with rage is to see fashionably dressed women with anywhere from two to a half dozen pampered pets. These are the dogs accused of eating the pound steaks.

But it appears certain that what ever other breeds may be affected by the threatened reduction of licenses the British Bulldog's place is secure. In defence of the bulldog it is stated that he is not an expensive luxury, that he will eat almost anything and only requires one good meal a day.

REPORT IS DELAYED

By Associated Press Dispatch, Washington, January 11.—Shortly after one o'clock Chairman Henry announced, owing to Speaker Clark being called to New-York, the report of the Rules Committee would not be submitted to the House before tomorrow.

PLAN ENTERTAINMENT

The Willing Workers of McNair Memorial church have decided to accept the proposition of the Chairman Concert Co., of Elmira, N. Y., to give an entertainment at the high school auditorium on the 5th day of next March under the management of the Florence Entertainment Bureau.

EDITORIAL LAMENT ON HIGH COST OF LIVING

Newville, Pa.—Under the caption, "The Asylum for Him," the Newville News Star says:

"The newspaper man is about the only great producer who is not sharing in the war-made prosperity. Everything he buys has gone up, and he still sells his paper at the same old price and takes a chance at that."

To prove this, he offers the following: "Please send a few copies of the paper containing the obituary of my aunt. Also publish the enclosed clipping of the marriage of my niece who lives in Lewistown. And I wish you would mention me in your local column, if it doesn't cost anything, that I have two bull calves for sale. As my subscription is out, please stop the paper, as times are too hard to waste money on newspapers."

C. H. & D. FACING A BRAND NEW MUDDLE

Cincinnati, January 11.—A sensation was sprung in United States District Court yesterday when Attorney Edward Ballard, representing Sallie F. Minor, administratrix of the estate of John W. Minor, and Constant Southworth, representing the city of Cincinnati, announced to Judge Hollister that the receivership of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railway Company, resulting from the suit of Walter B. Horn, filed back in 1905 never was lifted. They declared the order of the late United States Judge Lurton turning the property of the C. H. and D. back to the company contained the proviso that "possession hereby provided to be given to the railroad company subject to the terms and conditions of this order is, and shall be construed to be, the possession of this Court until its further orders herein."

On the theory that the original receivership was not lifted and that the possession of the road by the company was only in the company's capacity as agent of the Court, it was contended by Attorneys Balard and Southworth that under another provision of the order of Judge Lurton all claims of general creditors, now unsecured, apparently are in reality claims having priority over $46,500,000 in bonds issued by the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railway Company at the time it was given possession of the property by Judge Lurton.

Findlay, O., Jan. 11.—Judge W. F. Duncan ordered the plant of the Toledo-Findlay Tire and Rubber company sold at receiver's sale. V. T. Spittler was named receiver. The industry was organized two years ago with a capitalization of $300,000. Stockholders who petitioned for dissolution and sale declared the company has made no profits and has no prospect of any.

Purchase Pulp Plant.
Sandusky, O., Jan. 11.—In order to get raw material, its supply having been cut off soon after the war broke out in Europe, the Hinde & Dauch Paper company of this city purchased the controlling interest in the Southern Pulp company at Portsmouth, Va., a $500,000 corporation. The announcement was made by J. J. Dauch, president of the purchasing company. The Portsmouth company manufactures a yellow pine pulp.

NIP IT IN THE BUD

One of the worst pests of this time of the year is the family cold, for a cold is very contagious. More time and money are lost in the business world from colds than from any other malady. More persons unable to attend their daily work, more children kept home from school by colds which are often considered harmless ailments, but which prepare the way for all kinds of disease.

A stitch in time saves nine. Duffee's Cough Syrup should be kept in the house at all times and a dose taken at the first indication of a cold. A few doses will break the most severe cold. It contains no opiates or poisons, and is only 25 cents for a large 6-oz. bottle. Can you afford to do without it? Ask your grocer for it.

FARM NOTES

DIVERSIFIED FARM PAYS.

A well diversified business pays best for the man operating a general farm in Ohio, according to recent demonstrations of the Agricultural College Extension Service. It will pay better during a long period to have several main sources of income rather than just one. The average labor income on a number of farms where there was but one or no main source of income was but $227. Where there were two main sources of income, the labor income was $551; where there were three, it was $761; and where there were four or more, it was $1,029. The labor income is what the farm furnishes the operator for his labor and management after paying all farm expenses and after deducting five per cent on capital invested. In addition, the family has what the farm contributes toward the living.

BUYING PRIZE CORN.

Care should be taken when buying prize corn at corn shows to make sure that it is adapted to the community where it is to be planted, says W. E. Hanger of the College of Agriculture. Otherwise it probably will not prove as good as seed corn selected on the home farm.

BUYING SUPPLIES EARLY.

In an effort to avoid delayed shipments caused by probable car shortage next spring, many farmers are now ordering such supplies as fertilizers, repairs on machinery, seeds and other things needed for spring work.

CLEAN UP THE ORCHARD.

If it has not been done, now is a good time to burn the dead and diseased wood in the orchard as well as waste fruit and other litter which may harbor diseases or insect pests.

TABERNACLE WELL FILLED LAST NIGHT

"Repent or Perish," Is Hammered Home By Evangelist Bromley—"Being Church Member Doesn't Count Unless You Are Christian With It," He Tells Church People.

Wednesday night the tabernacle was well filled with people and the evangelist preached a strong sermon. The tabernacle committees held a brief meeting at the Y. M. C. A. prior to the meeting and went to the tabernacle in a body, occupying reserved seats in the center section of the tabernacle.

After the preaching service the Christians again gathered on the platform and there was a meeting of the secretaries of the campaign also.

Evangelist Bromley spoke from the twenty-first verse of the seventh chapter of Matthew: "Unless you repent, you are going to perish and there is no getting around that fact," said the evangelist in opening. "I have God's authority for the statement and you would better not try to dodge the matter. The Pharisees prayed more than many of you folks do and they gave one tenth of their possessions to the Lord and that's more than some of you folks are doing.

"The difference among Christians is not the foundation, for, if we have Christ as a foundation, then it matters not what the structure on the foundation is, we shall be saved.

"The sinner and the moral man have no foundation, and, while they may be living good lives it won't do; it is not enough. You say that the man who lives a clean life should not be classed with thieves and harlots, but, they must all be classed alike.

"Our redemption is doing the will of God Almighty and following the plan of God.

"Some people start a move toward God and think that is enough, but it is not. A move is not enough by any means. We must go all the way. You are not a Christian unless you go all the way. A change of belief is not enough by any means to save you, it requires a change of heart.

"A desire to go to heaven is not enough either. Some people say they don't believe there is a hell. I tell you, you'll believe so three minutes after you get there.

"Decision to join the church is not salvation either. You must be born again. Joining church is all right, but church membership will not save you by any means. Why there are two or three church members in Washington Court House who are not religious. Now don't start thinking who they might be because some one is thinking of you at the same time.

"An admiration for Jesus is not enough either. A friendly attitude won't do. Humanitarian work in itself is a good thing but it never saved a soul. I tell you throughout this country we have a tendency to have people join the church who are not converted. Don't let the goats into the pasture till you have knocked their horns off.

"Some people want a sugar coated sermon. That's not what you need; you need the fur rubbed the other way. You don't need Sister Winslow's soothing syrup; you need a mustard plaster applied.

"What is the matter with the church today that in an entire year they gained 2 per cent membership. No business would be run on such a basis.

"What would you do if some one would come to your house at two o'clock in the morning and say they were at the meeting and were convicted of sin and wanted you to pray with them. I know what some would do; you'd send the man around to the minister's home. The church should be in such a religious condition that the membership could get on their knees and pray a man into the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

"Real spirituality and true Christianity and Christian service. Let's not lower the standard of the church. Mortal souls are at stake. Let us heat up the church to the temperature of the new convert that comes into the church.

"The outside sinner reads you. He doesn't read the Bible but he reads you and he reads you out in the pool hall, the postoffice and I want to ask you, what kind of an open book are you.

"When a salesman comes to town he gets a salesroom and displays the kind of shoes he has. He shows off his wares. What kind of wares can the church show to the world. All that some people have to show for their church membership is their registration card.

"You say you don't believe in revivals? Neither does the devil, the gambler and the saloon keeper. You've got good company."

POINTS OF THE SERMON.

It is more logical for a hog to become a Yale professor than for an unconverted man to enter into the Kingdom of heaven.

A move toward God is not enough, you must go the entire way.

What you need is not Sister Winslow's soothing syrup, you need a mustard plaster application.

No business house would run on a two per cent basis, and, yet many churches are running on a basis of that kind.

Some church members don't have enough steam to sputter.

Let us heat up the church to the temperature of the new convert that comes into the church.

The outside sinner reads you, he don't read the Bible, but he reads you and he tells about you in the pool room, the post office and at other places.

You say you don't believe in revivals. Neither does the devil, the saloon keeper and the gambler. You are in good company.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Tonight the bible classes of the various churches will attend services at the tabernacle in a body. The classes will meet at their respective churches and march to the tabernacle. There will be space reserved in the tabernacle for the classes.

Prof. Myers addressed the upper grades of the Cherry Hill school Thursday morning and delivered a very interesting address. Sixty boys and girls were present.

Miss Gladys Ditzell met the girls of the high school Thursday afternoon and gave them a talk on matters concerning right living. A large number of girls were present.

The boys and girls chorus at the tabernacle is growing and there is now a membership of more than 400 boys and girls. Their first public appearance will be Saturday evening.

Friday evening the male chorus, organized by Prof. Myers, will meet at the tabernacle for rehearsal. The male chorus held one rehearsal thus far. It is likely that special song books will be secured for them.

At the home of Mrs. A. F. Hopkins Wednesday there was a parlor conference held; Dr. Bromley spoke.

More interest is being taken daily in the afternoon meetings at the tabernacle. Wednesday several hundred people were at the tabernacle in the afternoon and heard Dr. Bromley deliver a strong sermon on "Prayer."

PARLOR CONFERENCE

Following the Tabernacle meeting of Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins threw open her home for a parlor conference of women. The large connecting rooms and reception hall were crowded with women largely representative of the various churches and social circles.

Mrs. Bromley presided gracefully, and there were most inspiring informal talks by Rev. Bromley and Miss Ditzell. The personal intimacy of the parlor conference makes it one of the valuable accessories of the tabernacle campaign, and the women who had responded to informal invitations felt that the hour had been one of privilege.

WILL PREACH TO THE COLORED CITIZENS

Arrangements have been made for a meeting with the colored people of the city next Monday evening. This is the day set apart for rest by Dr. Bromley and his party, but the evangelist is very anxious to reach every person in Washington Court House, and, with that end in view has laid to one side his rest night this week for the purpose of preaching to the colored people of this vicinity.

The meeting will be held in the Colored Methodist church and Rev. Mr. Tate is making the arrangements for the meeting.

CODY FUNERAL ON NEXT SUNDAY

Remains of Buffalo Bill to Rest on Mountain Top.

Denver, Jan. 11.—Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), famous Indian scout and showman, who died at the home of his sister here, had a remarkable career. He was born in 1846 in Iowa. He became known as "Buffalo Bill" in 1867 after he had killed more than 4,000 buffalo. Up to the time of the civil war, Colonel Cody was a pony express rider. When the war broke out he enlisted in the Seventh Kansas as a scout and guide and later was made a colonel. In 1866 he became a government scout and furnished the thrills of Indian warfare of which thousands of American boys have read. He is said to have taken part in more Indian battles than any other white man. He entered the show business later and toured the world with his cowboys, Indians and ponies.

Funeral services for the noted scout are to be held Sunday afternoon, when the body will be placed in a receiving vault in a local cemetery, but the burial will not take place until next spring, probably Memorial day, when the body will be interred in a tomb hewn from the rock at the top of Lookout mountain, near this city. Plans already are afoot for the erection of a suitable monument at this final resting place.

COME IN FLOCKS
(By American Press)

Columbus, Jan. 11.—Candidates for every available state position are more numerous than ever. Cincinnati attorneys have been besieging Attorney General McGhee for appointment as special counsel at Cincinnati. John Devaney, son of the United States district marshal, is an active candidate. T. A. Fleming, Cleveland, and Edward Donovan, Waverly, are candidates to succeed State Fire Marshal Buckley. Both formerly were deputy marshals. E. S. Larson, Newark, will be chief clerk in Secretary of State Fulton's office. F. H. Notnagel, Cleveland, resigned as cashier in the state auto registration department. Appointment of Price Russell, executive clerk in the governor's office, as state insurance commissioner to succeed Commissioner Taggart in June, would cause no surprise. Russell held the position at the end of the former Cox administration.

FINALLY SUBMITTED
(By American Press)

Washington, Jan. 11.—Arguments in the supreme court of the United States on the eight hour test have been concluded. The fate of the measure is now to be declared by the court. Frank Hagerman, of Kansas City, special assistant to the attorney general, closing the government's argument for the bill, declared there was no doubt about the practicability of the bill and that congress had power to regulate wages and enact measure to prevent strikes. It is expected the court will hand down an early decision.

TO FRAME NEW TAX MEASURE

Preparation of the Measure Will Be Pushed.

TO ENACT IT BEFORE SPRING

Plan of Procedure to Be Announced by Governor Cox When the General Assembly Reconvenes Monday—Republican Members to Co-operate With the Democrats Under Certain Conditions.

Columbus, Jan. 11.—Leaders of both parties in the legislature made it clear that they want to enact a new tax law with as much dispatch as possible, in order to have it in operation by spring, as a result of the supreme court's decision, knocking out the Parrett-Whitmore law.

Governor Cox said he expected to have a definite plan of procedure to announce when the general assembly convenes Monday. Republicans expressed willingness to co-operate with Democrats, under certain conditions, so that the new law, as an emergency measure, may get the necessary two-thirds vote to make it immediately effective.

Democrats have not a two-thirds majority. Republicans, in return for their votes, will insist on having some of their recommendations accepted. Each party probably will introduce its own bill.

The supreme court decision practically made a clean sweep in brushing aside taxation laws, so that the provisions of the new law will go back to the fundamentals of things.

Boards of revision in Hamilton, Cuyahoga, Lucas and Mahoning counties still were in session until the state tax commission ordered them to cease work until the written opinion of the court is handed down. Prosecutor J. V. Campbell of Hamilton county told the board members and clerks that they can not collect salaries for future work.

It is likely that the new law will have to adopt pre-Warner law methods of creating boards of equalization and review. At that time, boards of review for cities were appointed by the state tax board, and the county auditor and commissioners constituted the board of equalization for property outside of cities.

Governor Cox made this statement on the supreme court decision: "The whole taxing machinery of the state falls to pieces, except such de facto status as might exist, and it is necessary to enact legislation which will be effective in time to provide for the date of assessment in the spring. Of course, a new tax valuing time must be created, but it will approximate the date that has been in operation for years. In view of the fact that a fixed time to elapse for the purpose of making up the duplicate, carrying on the work of review and specifying the tax rate by the budget commission is physically necessary, there is no time to be lost and yet what is done must be preceded with a very careful regard for the exigency. I shall probably have a definite plan of procedure to announce not later than Monday."

OF COURSE NOT

(By American Press)

Washington, Jan. 11.—The investigation by the federal trade commission into the gasoline situation has been completed. It was announced, and will be presented to congress next week. While the report has not yet been made public, it was stated on excellent authority that the report shows that the committee was unable to discover any combination between the Standard Oil company and independent oil companies to control gasoline prices, but that the independent companies followed closely the prices set by the Standard.

COLONEL HARTS, U. S. A., WILL BE THE MASTER OF INAUGURATION CEREMONIES

COL. WM. W. HARTS

Colonel William W. Harts, United States army, will have a prominent part in the coming inauguration ceremonies if he retains his present assignment of superintendent of public buildings and grounds in Washington. For many years that post has been held by an officer of the army engineer corps. On inauguration days he acts as a sort of master of ceremonies and has charge of the capitol with the stands erected for the spectators.

NOMINATION CONFIRMED

Daniels Still Member of Commerce Commission.

BITTER STRUGGLE ENDED

All of the Senators of the So-called Progressive Wing of the Republican Party and One Democrat Voted Against Confirmation—Daniels' Rulings Sharply Attacked by Cummins of Iowa.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Confirmation of Winthrop M. Daniels of New Jersey to succeed himself as a member of the interstate commerce commission was voted by the senate, and, contrary to custom, a part of the debate on the nomination was made public, revealing the bitterness of the fight waged against it in executive sessions.

The vote, taken after opposition had delayed action for nearly a month, stood 42 to 15. All the senators of the so-called progressive wing of the Republican party and one Democrat, Senator Hollis, voted in the negative. Fourteen Republicans joined the Democrats voting for confirmation.

Excerpts from the executive debate made public include a speech by Senator Cummins, attacking Commissioner Daniels' fitness for a place on the commission because of rulings he handed down as public utilities commissioner of New Jersey, and declaring that in granting increases to the railroads in the advance rate case the interstate commerce commission, led by Mr. Daniels, ignored the law and exercised an authority which never has been and never will be conferred on any commission.

A reply by Senator Newlands, defending the commissioner's part in both of these cases, also was given out.

In his argument against confirmation Senator Cummins went at length into the railroad control situation and declared he believed the federal government "had reached the parting of the ways." "I believe that our system of the control and regulation of common carriers is on final trial and if the commission is to be made up of men of Mr. Daniels' turn of mind, the system must be abolished," said the Iowa senator. "For one, I have no hesitation in declaring that if his views are to prevail, I am for absolute and immediate government ownership and operation of our transportation facilities."

GET CHAIRMANSHIPS

Columbus, Jan. 11.—The senate committee on committees has decided to give the Republicans eleven out of forty-one chairmanships. Among the chairmanships tentatively agreed upon for the senate are: Agnew, tax action committee; Lloyd, finance; Mooney, privileges and elections; Terrell, cities; Horn, villages; Gilmore, judiciary; Kennedy, labor; Holden, temperance; Wright, public health, and Benedict, public works.

VILLISTAS KILL WOMAN

Juarez, Jan. 11.—A telegram was received here by Miss Maria Chavez from her brother, Guillermo Chavez of Jiminez, which read: "Our mother was executed by Francisco Villa's forces Jan. 2." The girl's mother was Mrs. Celsa Caballero, a widow, living in Parral. The telegram added that the Villa officers, thinking the widow was wealthy, demanded a forced loan and, upon being refused, they ordered the woman shot by a firing squad.

The Investment of January Funds

The seven per cent cumulative preferred stocks we recommend for the investment of January funds are seasoned securities with unbroken dividend records. They represent the healthy growth of established industries, not the future hopes or expectations of new enterprises, hastily launched at the crest of national prosperity.

At current prices, these preferred stocks yield 6 3/4 to 7%, without deduction for taxes in Ohio, or for the nominal federal income tax.

If conservatism and due regard for future safety dictate the commitment of your funds, study our January offerings in detail. We will be glad to send descriptive booklets with financial statements free on application, together with our sixteen-page booklet, "The Selection of Investments," which explains the principles on which our success during the past 12 years has been founded.

BETTER WORK IS DEMANDED

(By American Press)

Columbus, Jan. 11.—Warning that "unless something is done, the whole highway system of Ohio is going to the devil," Governor James Cox addressed the eighth annual meeting of Ohio fair boys at Chamber of Commerce auditorium concerning his plans as to improvements of roads, agricultural administration and rural schools during the next two years.

"Farm folk and city folk," he said, "will not continue to see $4,000,000 going into the roads each year with no result but torn-up highways and a few inspectors on them. The department of public highways must be more efficiently organized. I want you all to register your views in respect to proposed changes in the Cass road law. That roads to county seats must be paid for in only five years is a monstrous proposition. If bonds be issued for ten or fifteen years, where permanent material is used, seventy times as many roads can be constructed as now, and much more cheaply."

AT WIDOW'S REQUEST

(By American Press)

Washington, Jan. 11.—In compliance with the request of Mrs. Luis d'Antin, widow of the former American diplomat whose recent death in Mexico was surrounded with circumstantial evidence pointing to foul play, the state department started an official inquiry. State department agents in Mexico City and San Luis Potosi were wired instructions to collect all evidence possible and forward it as fast as possible to the United States. One of the suspicious circumstances surrounding the case is that some official in the Carranzista employ requested that d'Antin accompany Mr. Arredondo to Mexico. The latest animosity toward d'Antin by Mexicans, it was said here, probably was due to the erroneous impression that he had informed the American press when Mr. Arredondo was to be withdrawn.
